"Life isn't easy. Life isn't perfect. We're all thrown curveballs here and there," Burns said. "Peter O'Hara as the protagonist certainly has his own share of curveballs to deal with. He's pushed to the limit maybe more than most people."

Burns will publish "No Turning Back," a collection of short stories spanning several genres, sometime next year. Now, he's working on his next novel, a crime mystery set in Chicago called "A Fine Line," which he plans to publish in 2015. After that comes a science fiction novel.

"It's fun and its ever-changing and its always challenging," Burns said of writing different genres. "I just like to mix it up."
